

Travel Counsellors are coming to Tasmania...

You are invited to come along and meet us for a confidential chat at a time and place convenient to you.

Use this opportunity to find out how Travel Counsellors can support you to grow a business of your own. You can continue to do what you love, and what you are best at – looking after your customers, while having the potential to earn more than you ever have before.

We will be in Hobart, Launceston and Ulverstone between Thursday 16 and Tuesday 21 September 2010

To arrange your appointment for a private and confidential meeting, please call our Recruitment Team in strict confidence on:
